

Get Xtreme results!

Competitive horses take a beating every time they train or compete. The demands of competition take a heavy toll on your horse's joints, muscles, bones, and respiratory system. Maintaining these systems is vital to both your horse's health and to your chances of winning.

The answer is Oxy-Gen Xtreme™. Formulated specifically for equine athletes, it's the only supplement on the market that combines the the original Oxy-Gen™ formula developed by Dr. Jack McEowen, Ph.D. with MSM and glucosamine to assist in healing damage and promote superior joint health. Oxy-Gen Xtreme™ is found in the barns of world class competitors like Whitney O'Neal, C.R. Bradley, and hundreds of winners in every discipline from English to Western.

Mary Burger, 2006 WPRA World Champion

C.R. Bradley, 6 time AQHA World
Champion calf roper and 2004 NFR qualifier

Oxy-Gen Xtreme™ is also great for companion horses, too, especially middle-aged horses experiencing joint issues like spurs and arthritis. Whether you are a top competitor or a weekend pleasure rider, every horse will benefit from the original Oxy-Gen™ formula. To get Xtreme results, you need Oxy-Gen Xtreme™!
